

ANNUAL REPORT 2025

January–December 2025

As changing federal priorities reshaped the conservation landscape in 2025, Save the Dunes remained focused on protecting the natural treasures of Northwest Indiana. With your support, we deepened our partnership with the Indiana Dunes National Park, expanded restoration efforts, and amplified our advocacy for the dunes, Lake Michigan, and the communities that depend on them.

Thank you for helping us grow our impact in 2025!

47

in person & online events hosted

16

meetings with policymakers

205

acres restored through collaborative grants

329

members supporting our work

$108,600

in funding allocated to partners for conservation work

ANNUAL REPORT 2025

January–December 2025

Board of Directors

Nancy Moldenhauer, President
Ryan Metz, Vice President
Bob Lange, Treasurer
Madeleine Doyle, Secretary

Board Members

Jordan Bailey
Carol Sue Angarola
Susan Kirt
Raeann Trakas
Joel Giannetti
Crystal Williams-French
Dale Eichelman
Jen Fisher
Rudy Gallegos

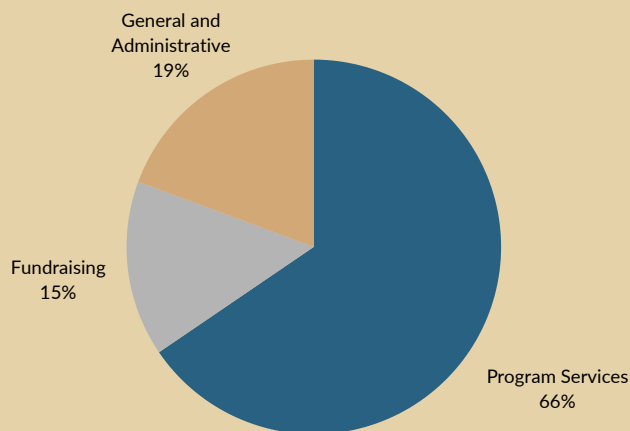

Staff

Betsy Maher, Executive Director
Katie Hobgood, Program Director
Lisa Scheller, Development Director
Amber Seiler, Office Manager Harshini Ratnayaka, Manager of Government Affairs & Policy Em Racine, Manager of Communications & Community Engagement
Jacob Nieto, Conservation Coordinator

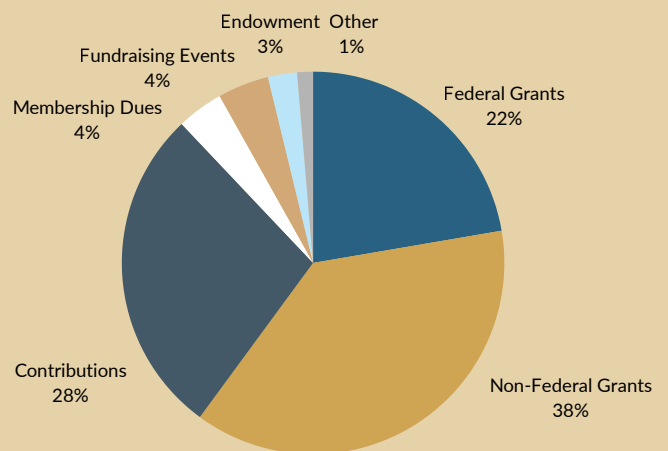

Financial Snapshot

Area	2025	2024
Total Assets	$2,207,283	$2,671,795
Total Liabilities	$95,324	$125,744
Total Net Assets	$2,111,959	$2,546,051

Expenses

Revenue

The financial data included in this report is drawn from Save the Dunes' financial statements, which were independently reviewed by an external accounting firm.